Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Win et al(6,161, 139).

3. As per claim 1, Win et al. discloses a method of requesting approval for accessing a resource in a system of resources(see col. 3, lines 66-67, col. 4, lines 16-18, col. 5, lines 45-47), creating a resource profile including at least one resource(see col. 4, lines 58-67, col. 5, lines 27-30); creating a job profile that is related to at least one user; assigning the job profile to the resource profile(see col. 5, lines 1-33); and requesting a resource owner of the resource profile to approve access to the resource profile assigned to the job profile(see col. 5, lines 35-44, col. 13, lines 7-23), such that a user assigned to the job profile gains approval for accessing the at least one resource included in the resource profile(see col. 5, lines 1-47).

4. As per claim 2, Win et al. discloses wherein the requesting step automatically originates from the assigning step(see col. 5, lines 29-32).

5. As per claim 3, Win et al. discloses wherein the resource profile includes at least one computing device(see col. 4, lines 46-66).

7. As per claim 5, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one job(see col. 5, lines 1-11).

8. As per claim 6, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one role(see col. 5, lines 12-41).

9. As per claim 7, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one project(see col. 5, lines 1-27).

10. As per claim 8, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one workgroup(see col. 5, lines 1-27).

11. As per claim 9, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one responsibility(see col. 5, lines 1-27).

12. As per claim 10, Win et al. discloses a method for providing a user access to a resource in a system(see col. 3, lines 66-67, col. 4, lines 16-18, col. 5, lines 45-47), assigning the user to a job profile that relates to the user(see col. 5, lines 1-33); and assigning the job profile to a resource profile that includes the resource, such that the user gains approval for accessing the resource included in the resource profile(see col. 5, lines 1-47).

13. As per claim 11, Win et al. discloses wherein the resource profile has been previously approved for access by a resource owner of the resource(see col. 5, lines 35-44, col. 13, lines 7-23).

14. As per claim 12, Win et al. discloses including granting an account to the user for accessing the resource(see col. 9, lines 17-45).

15. As per claim 13, Win et al. discloses wherein the account is automatically provided following the assigning the user to the job profile(see col. 5, lines 22-47).

16. As per claim 14, Win et al. discloses wherein the resource profile includes at least one computing device(see col. 4, lines 46-66).

17. As per claim 15, Win et al. discloses wherein the resource profile includes at least one application software(i.e. applet)(see col. 4, lines 65-66).

18. As per claim 16, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one job(see col. 5, lines 1-11).

19. As per claim 17, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one role(see col. 5, lines 1-11).

20. As per claim 18, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one project(see col. 5, lines 1-27).

21. As per claim 19, Win et al. discloses wherein the job profile includes at least one workgroup(see col. 5, lines 1-27).

22. As per claim 20, Win et al. discloses receiving a request for accessing the resource profile(see col. 4, lines 58-67, col. 5, lines 27-30); evaluating the request by a resource owner of the resource profile(see col. 5, lines 35-44, col. 13, lines 7-23); and deciding to grant access approval such that if access approval is granted, future accesses of the resource profile do not need approval by the resource owner(see col. 5, lines 45-55).

23. As per claim 21, Win et al. discloses wherein the deciding step includes restricting the resource profile to be accessed by a certain job profile(see col. 5, lines 1-29).

24. As per claim 22, Win et al. discloses a system for accessing computing resources(see col. 3, lines 66-67, col. 4, lines 16-18, col. 5, lines 45-47), at least one user terminal(see col. 4, lines 46-49); at least one database including at least one application software(see col. 4, lines 58-67); at least one computing device(see col. 4, lines 11-45); means for creating a resource profile including the at least one database and the at least one application software(see col. 4, lines 58-67); means for creating a job profile related to at least one user; means for assigning the resource profile to the job profile(see col. 5, lines 1-33); means for approving access to the resource profile by at least one resource owner(see col. 5, lines 35-44, col. 13, lines 7-23); and means for providing access to at least one resource included in the resource profile(see col. 5, lines 1-47).

25. As per claim 23, Win et al. discloses implemented on a network environment(see col. 4, lines 51-57).

26. As per claim 24, Win et al. discloses wherein the network environment further including Internet(see col. 4, lines 51-57).

27. As per claim 25, Win et al. discloses wherein at least one of the resource profile(see col. 5, lines 1-33), the computing device(see col. 4, lines 46-66), and the software module is owned by various resource owners(see col. 4, lines 58-67, col. 5, lines 1-10).

28. As per claim 26, Win et al. discloses determining whether a plurality of resources may be grouped together in a resource profile; and grouping the plurality of resources in the resource profile if such grouping is allowed, such that if access approval is granted for the resource profile, future accesses of the resource profile do not need access approval(see col. 5, lines 1-47).

29. As per claim 27, Win et al. discloses wherein the determining step further includes checking against an exclusion rule(see col. 5, lines 1-47).

30. As per claim 28, Win et al. discloses indicating that the resource profile may not be built if the grouping is not allowed under the exclusion rule(see col. 5, lines 1-47).

Art Unit: 2131

31. As per claim 29, Win et al. discloses a method for assigning a job profile to a resource profile(see col. 5, lines 1-33); determining whether a job profile may be assigning the job profile to the resource profile if such assignment is allowed, such that a user assigned to the job profile gains approval for accessing the resource profile(see col. 5, lines 1-55).

32. As per claim 30, Win et al. discloses wherein the determining step further includes checking against an exclusion rule(see col. 5, lines 1-47).

33. As per claim 31, Win et al. discloses indicating that the job profile may not be assigned to the resource profile if the assignment is not allowed under the exclusion rule(see col. 5, lines 1-47).

34. As per claim 32, it is rejected under the same basis as claim 1.
